ABOUT ME

I am a Game Developer experienced in Unity and web-based game development, including playable ads and HTML5 games.

I hold Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Information Technology from the National Polytechnic University of Armenia.

I have experience across hyper-casual, hybrid-casual, and midcore game development, as well as interactive marketing creatives, with a focus on gameplay systems, architecture, tools, UI, and core game logic. I enjoy collaborative, feedback-driven environments where I can take ownership, improve product quality, and grow through technical challenges.

WORK EXPERIENCE
