ABOUT ME

Game Developer, Programmer, and CS & CG Enthusiast, experienced in Unity and Web-Based Game Development, including Playable Ads and HTML5 Games, with Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Information Technology from the National Polytechnic University of Armenia. My experience spans Hyper-Casual, Hybrid-Casual, and Midcore Game Development, as well as Interactive Marketing Creatives, with a focus on Gameplay Systems, Architecture, Tools, UI, and Core Game Logic. I enjoy exploring Computer Science, Computer Graphics, Math, and Game Development, and combining them throughout my work, especially in collaborative, feedback-driven environments where I can take ownership, improve product quality, and grow through technical challenges.
